TELEPHONE FACTS.

Letter From Manager of Clarksville Company

Clarksville, Tenn., Nov. 20 Mr. E. B. TYLER.

Hopkinsville, Ky. DEAR Sir--Replying to your favor of the 19th inst., making inquiry in regard to the continuations of the Cumberland (Bell) Telephone Company, that this Company had sold out or offered to sell to them, will say that this story was published here at one time during the past summer and was vigorously denied at the time. Any such insinuation or statement is utterly false.

In regard to the Harrison Telephone Company, that refers to a deal made more than ten years ago, the method of warfare is used in all places by the Cumberland (Bell) Telephone people, where independent plants are in course of construction or in prospect. The local papers were full of such stuff for some time after we were in operation here. It was always met with silent disregard on our part except in one instance where they published a fake proposition from us to sell out to them, which was promptly denied as stated above.

Our subscription list is growing nicely and we enclose you herewith a list of new subscribers published recently and also send you a copy of our directory as well as that of the Cumberland people.

We do not use the party line system in the city at all but you will notice that nearly every Bell subscriber has two phones, each of which is listed separately.

You have our best wishes for success, of which we have no doubt, and will be glad to render you any service in our power.

Yours truly,
The Clarksville Home Telephone Co.,
H. M. PERRY, Manager.

A Few Facts to Give the People.

Why are the Cumberland Bell so anxious to WARN THE DEAR PUBLIC against competition? Because they know to their sorrow what the results have been where they had to meet competition and because they know full well what the results will be in Hopkinsville.

The Bell Telephone company have been in operation in Ohio and Indiana for over twenty years and The Independent people about seven years and yet in spite of the great start The Bell Company had over The Independent there are in Ohio to-day over 125,000 INDEPENDENT TELEPHONES AND LESS THAN 90,000 BELL TELEPHONES. In Indiana there are over 75,000 INDEPENDENT TELEPHONES AND LESS THAN 40,000 BELL TELEPHONES.

Why have the Independent Companies installed and put in service 200,000 TELEPHONES in these two states in SEVEN YEARS and the Bell Company less than 130,000 TELEPHONES in twenty years.

The question has been answered by the people and the reason for their answer was because they have got BETTER AND MORE SERVICE at a CHEAPER RATE.

Why did not the dear old Cumberland Telephone company who love the dear public so well buy the franchise the public offered for sale? Because they knew that they could not pay dividends on their over capitalization if they had to give the people a MODERN SERVICE at a FAIR RATE.

Why are they so sore on the INDEPENDENT PROMOTER and take the great pains to warn the dear public against SIGNING CONTRACTS with the Independent Company? It is because they love the dear public as well or it is because they know full well that if the people once get the use of private lines, copper wire, secret service, long distance telephones, prompt service, reasonable rates and no change in rate for twenty years that they will keep such service and such treatment in preference to past service and past treatment furnished by the great corporation known as the Cumberland Bell Telephone company. The answer has been given by the public all over the great United States in the fact that in seven years of development there are more independent telephones in the United States to-day than there are Bell notwithstanding the fact that the Bell Company have been in the field for twenty years and over or three times as long as the Independent.

They say that their rights of way, franchises, etc., are permanent and that other companies would be a nuisance to the public but forget to state that it would be any benefit to the public to have a contract with a company who have agreed to give them service at a specified rate for twenty years, they also forget to state that the new company have a bona fide twenty year franchise while theirs is in question.

According to their theory, the Tennessee Central railroad is a nuisance to Hopkinsville to have around because the Illinois Central and the Louisville and Nashville are already established and should not be disturbed.

They say these promoters, as they call the Independent Telephone companies, have no intention of going into the telephone business permanently but that they are in for the money there is in it. If such be the case, why are there more independent telephones in existence today than there are Bell? And why have financial men invested in independent telephone properties to the extent of $200,000,000.

If competition is such a farce, why do the Bell Company keep salaried agents to intimidate and bulldoze the public against the uses and advantages of a modern service at a reasonable price.

Why do they hold up the little farmer line that runs from Hopkinsville out towards Cerulean Springs as a sample and forget to say anything about the long distance lines of the Louisville and Lexington Home Telephone companies and a number of others.

Why do they say that they will cut rates if they have to? Why do they charge higher rates where there is no competition? Why will they not accept a franchise at a stipulated rate for service? Why do they rebuild their plants and give Central Energy service where they have competition? Why do they give the people a service that has been out of date for five years where they have no competition? Why do they not keep their promises? How have they kept them with you? How did they keep them in Chattanooga?

THE PUBLIC KNOWS WHY AND WILL ANSWER THE QUESTION.

In conclusion they state that the dear public must pay their regular price plus the price of the independent phone, notwithstanding the fact that they know only too well that thousands of business houses, offices and residences have no phone but the independent and further the fact that where there is competition the Independent Companies are one times out of ten along the bulk of the

LOW ONE-WAY SETTLERS' RATES

TO THE NORTHWEST AND

CALIFORNIA.

From September 15 until November 30, 1903, the Burlington makes very low one-way colonist rates to California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana. The reduction is from 25 to 40 per cent. from the regular rates.

THE WAY TO GO.

The Burlington, with its strong main lines and free chair cars, best reaches the West and Northwest via Denver, Billings or St. Paul.
"The Burlington-Northern Pacific Express" is the great daily through train with chair cars and tourist sleepers via Billings, Montana, to Puget Sound and intermediate points.

TO CALIFORNIA.

The Burlington's weekly personally conducted California excusions in through tourist sleepers are just the thing for coast tourists and settlers. The route is Denver, Scenic Colorado and Salt Lake.

FAITH IN LITERATURE.

One of the Things Indispensable to an Author.

All good literature must be written in faith. That is its necessary condition, says the Academy and Literature. The writer's appeal is not immediate like an actor's, or an orator's, or even like a painter's, or a sculptor's, or a musician's. Its form is invisible, and in modern times usually invisible too. It works solely upon the lonely mind, and has no outward aid. Nor can its effect be tested by anything like the demonstrations of a theater. A novelist once saw a young person blush over one of his books. An emperor once saw a dull person laughing over Don Quixote. But such visible expressions of emotion are rare, and in these days of print the author himself can hardly ever hope to witness them. That is why he of all working people needs most faith. He has to cast his breast upon the waters, but it is extremely unlikely that he will find it again after many days. And (without driving a metaphor too far) we may say that the better the bread, the less chance he has of finding it. Instances are almost too obvious, but let us take the highest of all and remember that it was only by a mere fluke that Shakespeare's best plays were even thought worth preserving. Or, to take the case of Blake again, what chance of recognition had the "Songs of Innocence" in 1795? Within some 30 or 40 years
Charles Lamb and Wordsworth had discovered them. Within another 50 or 60 years after that they became the common property of all who love literature; but by what faith in beauty and in man's ultimate recognition of beauty must the poet's faith have been inspired, who at the time when English verse had perhaps touched its lowest point could raise the song of "The Echoing Green," or "The Chimney Sweeper," or "The Invincible Man," or that song of "Night" with its meter of subtle and varying beauty. For a hundred and fifty years nothing to compare with such things had been heard in England, and the world around Blake was con-temptuously deaf to them. He could only write in faith that some day human beings would again be born with minds sufficiently like his own to perceive the beauty of his work. To remove mountain is a trivial task compared with the confidence in so vast a change; and yet the change came.

It is this faith in the ultimate similarity of great minds which makes great literature possible, for not even genius could produce without the hope that at some time its work would be taken at its value. An evidence for the faith may be seen in the peculi-arity of all the work of the highest genius—that it appears capable of growing no matter how old it has become. There are passages in Homer and Shakespeare which it has been impossible for the world to appreciate or understand till this very moment. They appear to have been growing with the world, so much more can the world discover in them now than at any past time. This is why the works and teachings of the highest genius are rightly called immortal.

The lazy man would rather sit down and hope than go after a certainty.—Chicago Daily News.

Handle Tobacco.

To the planters of Clarksville
Tobacco District and all interested in the property of the Clarksville tobacco market.

Dear Sirs:—We beg to inform you that our experience of the past season encourages us to continue in business of selling tobacco as we have done this season and for many years past and that the broad doors of the Queen City Tobacco Warehouse will be open for the sale of loose tobacco on the floor, or in bins, light weights or otherwise as our friends may select to deliver it.

We sold the past season for three thousand planters (to all whom we refer) and confidently believe that these will not only patronize us, but that they will bring their neighbors.

By the selling of tobacco on the open markets the various demands will be brought face to face and the farmers can bring to themselves prosperity they have not for a long time experienced in the growing of tobacco.

In the establishing of the Kendrick-Runyon Tobacco Warehouse Company by whom we are succeeded our one purpose and aim is to strengthen our position as sellers of tobacco. And all may rest assured that the same effort under the same management will be made as has been done by us for so many years past.

Respectfully,

THE VICTORIA WATER FALL

One of the Greatest Wonders of the World.
Class in World.

Among the wonders of the world, and one of the greatest of its class, must be counted the Victoria Falls, on the Zambesi. The quantity of water that flows over the precipice is computed to be considerably larger than that of the Niagara Falls, and the drop is nearly twice as great, being over 100 feet. Thence it is computed that while 7,000,000 horse power is present at Niagara, five times as much runs to waste on the Zambesi. This mighty force is about to be harnessed. Electrical engineers reckon that they can run railways, work mines, do any amount of electro-chemical work, and even transmit power to the Rand gold fields by utilization of this stupendous energy. Engineering states that according to American estimates, with conditions similar to those of Rhodesia, it will be possible to convey the current 330 miles and deliver it at a cost of $22 per kilowatt per annum, the load being on for 24 hours of the day. Within a radius of 300 miles of the falls are included the Wankie coal fields, Bulawayo, the tiwale, Selakwe, Selakwe, Lomangudi and Hanley gold fields, the Northern copper fields, and about 900 miles of railway line, while a transmission of 600 miles would take in the whole of the South African gold fields. Even this is not all. The whole region round the Victoria Falls is richly mineralized. It is no very Utopian dream to think of a time when those waters in the wilderness, on which Livingstone gazed with so much wonder, may flow through great cities that shall form centers of civilization in central Africa. All the more likely, as the country around is lofty and healthy. Here, at any rate, is a source of power and wealth that was extant hundreds of thousands of years before man appeared in Africa, and one that will outlast for ages all the gold fields of the continent.

Children need a parent's closest attention in matters of health, and particularly in carefully observing that the functions of digestion are working perfectly. From the little baby to the rolicking boy or the petted girl, the occasional use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will prove the greatest kind of health builder. How many of us remember during our childhood the time when the bottle of Castor Oil was taken from the shelf and father or mother coaxed us to take it. Children like Syrup Pepsin: take it as they would honey. All druggists sell it.

Wheat blockade, which has been severe in Kansas, is being raised by the extraordinary efforts of the railroads, trains of fifty cars with double engine power being rushed to Kansas City and Chicago.

"I telephoned for a doctor, then gave a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and a few minutes later a second dose. Before the doctor came the child was relieved." ### THE VICTORIA WATER FALL

One of the Greatest Wonders of the World.
Class in World.

Among the wonders of the world, and one of the greatest of its class, must be counted the Victoria Falls, on the Zambesi. The quantity of water that flows over the precipice is computed to be considerably larger than that of the Niagara Falls, and the drop is nearly twice as great, being over 100 feet. Thence it is computed that while 7,000,000 horse power is present at Niagara, five times as much runs to waste on the Zambesi. This mighty force is about to be harnessed. Electrical engineers reckon that they can run railways, work mines, do any amount of electro-chemical work, and even transmit power to the Rand gold fields by utilization of this stupendous energy. Engineering states that according to American estimates, with conditions similar to those of Rhodesia, it will be possible to convey the current 330 miles and deliver it at a cost of $22 per kilowatt per annum, the load being on for 24 hours of the day. Within a radius of 300 miles of the falls are included the Wankie coal fields, Bulawayo, the tiwale, Selakwe, Selakwe, Lomangudi and Hanley gold fields, the Northern copper fields, and about 900 miles of railway line, while a transmission of 600 miles would take in the whole of the South African gold fields. Even this is not all. The whole region round the Victoria Falls is richly mineralized. It is no very Utopian dream to think of a time when those waters in the wilderness, on which Livingstone gazed with so much wonder, may flow through great cities that shall form centers of civilization in central Africa. All the more likely, as the country around is lofty and healthy. Here, at any rate, is a source of power and wealth that was extant hundreds of thousands of years before man appeared in Africa, and one that will outlast for ages all the gold fields of the continent.

A CHINESE JOKER

Used to Fool the Customs Officials.
Chinese as a rule are not generally credited with the possession of humor, but Quong Tart, a celebrated Chinese merchant of Sydney, New South Wales, who died recently, was famous in the land of his adoption for his amusing sayings and doings. Once at a big public meeting when the mayor of Sydney had concluded a vigorous appeal for funds, Quong Tart, who was present, stood up and, in his broken English, made the matter go. "Quong Tart was much given to punning, and in his early days when asked why he did not marry would reply: 'I have not yet enough fun in my tart.'" When the $500 poll tax on Chinese was imposed by the New South Wales government, Quong's penchant for practical joking found full vent. On one occasion, when the vessel on which he was taking a trip to the north of the colony put in at its first port of call, Quong dressed himself to play the part of a stow-away Chinaman. With patches of mud on his clothes and his hat pushed into a shocking shape, he affected to try to steal past the collector of customs, but that official promptly captured him. "Mo-ry's want go shore," he called the innocent captive. "One man he go shore; two, three man he go shore. W'y me no go shore?" "No, no, John," was the stern reply, "you pay a hundred pounds first!" An altercation of several minutes ensued, plentifully bestrewn with "me no sarves" from "John." Then, suddenly, with a few lightning touches transforming his personal appearance, and presenting himself to the astonished official, Quong revealed himself and received a cordial greeting.

Novel Use for Teeth.

There is a newspaper man who does the whole of his writing with his teeth. Mr. Lonise Schuelke, who has from birth been denied the use of either hands or arms, has adopted this method with great success, although able also to work with his feet. He is the Banker's Hill correspondent of the Waterbury Republican, a Connecticut Journal. In addition to writing, Mr. Schuelke draws and paints by the same means, and with considerable skill.

Yale defeated Harvard in the great football game Saturday by a score of 16 to 0.

The total vote on the constitutional amendment was 60,505 for and 41,955 against.

Eastern mills and factories continue to reduce the wages of their employees. Prices are declining and the wave of prosperity is slowly receding.

The San Domingo government has sent a minister to Washington to offer a coaling station in return for the support of the United States of the government of President Wood.

The Democratic Committee of the second senatorial district has called a convention to be held at Wickliffe Dec. 22. Precinct mass conventions will be held Nov. 28 in the four counties of the district. There are three or four candidates.

Special Judge Eli H. Brown, designated to try the Holland case at Murray, overruled a motion to quash the indictment and continued the case.

The ticket of Hanna and Odell is becoming very popular with that large body of Republicans who are opposed to Roosevelt and Durbin.

The court of appeals will hear the Jim Howard case today and it is to be hoped that Howard may be given a new trial. With the new evidence now at hand, another trial would give him a death sentence, instead of life imprisonment. With Powers and Howard hanged and Youlesy in the penitentiary, the public could afford to wait until Taylor and Finley can be brought to punishment.

Col. Joo. G. Craddock, editor of the Paris Kentuckian-Citizen, fell while boarding a street car in Lexington a few days ago and fractured a rib and was otherwise painfully injured. He is now in a hospital at Lexington. Col. Craddock is more than eighty years old and is so feeble as to be almost helpless.

Gen. Leonard Wood's enemies at Washington are about to prove that Wood, while Governor General of Cuba, accepted a silver set worth $5,100 from the Jai Alai gambling club, soon after he granted a concession to the club. The set was purchased before the concession was granted, but held until after the desired action had been taken by Gen. Wood.

"The Compromises of Life," (from the press of Fox, Duffield & Co., 36 East 21st street, New York) is the first collection ever made of Hon. Henry Watterson's best writings. The book takes its name from his best-known lecture, but includes his lectures "The Compromise of Life," "The South in Light and Shade," "Money and Morals," "Abraham Lincoln," and "John Paul Jones." There are fifteen addresses, several speeches, including the one made in Congress on the

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Free Hall's Family Pills for Constipation.

Paul Stuffed Up

That's the condition of many sufferers from catarrh, especially in the morning. Great difficulty is experienced in clearing the head and throat.

No wonder catarrh causes headache, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, pollutes the breath, deranges the stomach and affects the appetite.

To cure catarrh, treatment must be constitutional—alterative and tonic. I was afflicted with catarrh. I took medicines of different kinds, giving each a fair trial, but gradually grew worse until I could hardly hear, taste or smell. I then concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after taking five bottles I was cured and have not had any return of the disease since. F. J. CHENEY, Lebanon, Ky.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Cures catarrh—It soothes and strengthens the mucous membrane and builds up the whole system.

Electoral Bill, and his series of editorials on the "Smart Set" in New York. The first chapter in the volume is Col. Watterson's memorial address on Gen. D. Prentice, delivered Feb. 22, 1870, before the Kentucky legislature, soon after Mr. Prentice's death. The style of Kentucky's great editor is everywhere in evidence, while the lectures and addresses sparkle with humor and eloquence. The book is handsomely bound with uncut leaves, and contains nearly 500 pages.

Colombia has realized too late that she let a bird go by her attempt to hold up Uncle Sam for $15,000,000. She rejected our offer of $10,000,000 for the canal site, demanding $25,000,000. Now Panama has succeeded, has set up a separate government and has been recognized by the United States, France and Germany. The American republic promptly closed the trade upon the terms offered and Colombia is kicking herself all over South America. When the Senate ratifies the new treaty, as it is expected to do, the canal question will be settled and nothing can be gained by resistance. The quicker we build the canal the better. If it doesn't suit us, we can dig another.

The Cumberland Telephone Company has ceased to be indifferent to the situation in this city, but last week sent Mr. Chas. M. Merz a special representative, here to conduct a canvass of the city. Simultaneously with his arrival the mails were flooded with literature and a local paper was filled to overflowing with long winded articles which only served to make the people of Hopkinsville more determined than ever to rid themselves of a telephone monopoly. In another column we publish a letter from Clarksville showing the methods of the Cumberland in publishing an item ten years old to create the false impression that the present Home Company of Clarksville is in an insolvent condition.

The Industrial Supplement is issued as a part of today's edition of the Kentuckian, while not intended as such, is a measure in commemoration of the close of the 25th volume of the paper under its present management. Twenty-five years of service is a long term for one who still considers himself one of the "young men" of the press, but the editor of the Kentuckian will round out that period on the first of January.

The farmers of Kentucky are just beginning to realize what it is to have no market for a crop of tobacco worth millions of dollars. The Regie trust and the Continental trust have done the business, and to top it off the courts have decided that tobacco is not a "necessity," and therefore exempt from the operation of anti-trust laws.

Henry Lawrence, of Trigg county, has withdrawn from the race for Speaker of the House, in the interest of H. H. Brown, of Nelson county. This leaves only four candidates—Brown, Newcomb, Bartou and Rigdon.

The talk of war with Colombia is nonsense. If Colombia cannot settle her own dissensions, how can she expect anything from the United States? After a few indignant protests, Colombia will subside.

The Kentucky delegation in Congress is said to be solid for Gorman and with the Courier-Journal an active Gorman organ. It looks like Kentucky is a sure shot for the Maryland Senator. Hearst, of New York, has some friends and Parker is sometimes mentioned, but Gorman is rapidly becoming the popular favorite.

BEWARE OF CONTRACTS.

The Cumberland Telephone Company last summer forced Dr. T. W. Blakey, Mr. W. P. Garney, Mrs. Lizzie Rawlin, Prof. J. B. Taylor and other regular patrons to sign annual contracts and the parties imposed upon have been unable to recover the contracts signed since the Cumberland company was called down on its methods. Do not sign any more such contracts. The Home Company will soon be in a position to give you improved and polite telephone service, without locking you into any such contracts.

The Mayfield Messenger declares its opposition to an educational qualification for suffrage in Kentucky. There may be some opposition to the ballot reform demanded by the tax-payers of the State, but public sentiment is too strong to be ignored and we predict that pictorial voting in Kentucky will hereafter be a thing of the past.

Made Young Again.

"One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my teens again," writes D. H. Turner, of Dempseytown, Pa. They're the best in the world for Liver, Stomach, and Bowels. Purely vegetable. Never gripe. Only 25c at R. C. Hardwick's.

BARS BIBLE FROM SCHOOLS.

Nebraska Supreme Court Forbids Reading of the Scriptures.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 21.—The supreme court of Nebraska to-day issued a writ of mandamus against the teacher of district school No. 21, in Gage county, ordering her not to read the Bible to her pupils. The court decided that sectarian knowledge should not be imparted in the public schools.

Tenderness or aching in the small of the back is a serious symptom. The kidneys are suffering. Take Prickly Ash Bitters at once. It is a reliable kidney remedy and system regulator and will cure the trouble before it develops its dangerous stage. R. C. Hardwick.

HUNTER ON TOP AGAIN

TRAIN SERVICE
To Be Inaugurated on Hopkinsville Division Monday.

TRAMPED TO DEATH
By Mad Ox, Was Little Walter Marlowe.

The first regular train service between Hopkinsville and Clarksville, over the Tennessee Central Railroad, will be inaugurated next Monday. On that date a mixed train will be put into operation between the two places. The train will make a round trip every day. The schedule for the trains on the Hopkinsville division are now being prepared and the exact hour of departure and arrival cannot be given at present. A regular passenger train will likely be put in operation on this division in a few weeks. Regular passenger service between Nashville and Clarksville will be inaugurated Nov. 30.

Last Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wallis were shocked on receiving a telegram from their son-in-law, Mr. W. D. Marlowe, who lives in Durango, Col., stating that his nine-year-old son, Walter Bradford, had been seriously, if not fatally injured. Less than two hours afterwards the second telegram was received stating that the little boy had died. The next day the third message came saying that the child had been trampled by a mad ox, and it is presumed in one of the streets of Durango, and that his remains would be carried to Colorado Springs for burial. Mr. Marlowe's father is a physician of Colorado Springs. These are all the particulars received up to this time, as it takes three days for the mail to reach this place. The sorrowing parents have the sympathy of our people.

Trial bottles free. Regular sizes 50c and $1.00.

A Startling Test.
To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt, of North Mecklenburg, Pa., made a startling test, resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes: "A patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for Dyspepsia, indigestion, Constipation and Kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50c at R. C. Hardwick's.

Coyner, of Wansan, Wis., arrived here last week on a visit to his brother, Mr. E. F. Coyner, whom he had not seen for 30 years. The latter is carrier on rural route number 2. The brothers got into communication with each other a few weeks ago.

Both are sent for only one dollar a year. Word and Works is among the best American Magazines. Like the Hicks Almanac, it is too well known to need further commendation. Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased. Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose. Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail. Name of Swamp-Root, fill in all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonials and letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Quick Arrest.
J. A. Gullede, of Verbena, Ala., was twice in the hospital from a severe case of piles, causing 24 tumors. After doctors and all remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly arrested further inflammation and cured him. It conquers aches and kills pain. 25c at R. C. Hardwick's.

Prof. J. B. Taylor had a narrow escape from serious injury while in Louisville last week. In boarding a street car he was thrown down by a lurch of the car and dragged some distance. He was considerably bruised, but was able to attend to his regular duties in school yesterday.

Guard your kidneys; the health of the body depends on those small but important organs. They extract uric acid from the blood, which if allowed to remain in the system would cause dropsy and Bright's disease. Prickly Ash Bitters is a successful kidney tonic; it heals and strengthens the kidneys, regulates the liver, stimulates the stomach and digestion, cleanses the bowels. It will prevent or cure Bright's disease. R. C. Hardwick.

The above plant of the Acme Mills and Elevator Company, of Hopkinsville, Ky., is situated in the best wheat growing county in the State of Kentucky. The flour manufactured by this Company is from wheat raised on limestone soil, and cannot be surpassed. The demand for their product is from the Ohio river to the Gulf and Atlantic Coast. Their Mills and Elevators are situated on the L. & N. tracks, with ample switch facilities for handling their business. Everything about the plant is modern, convenient and up-to-date. It is conceded that they have the handsomest and most convenient milling plant in the State of Kentucky. They are just completing Mill B, which will be equipped with a full line of the Wolf Co. machinery. Plant A is equipped with the Nordyke and Marmon machinery and has been in operation a little over four years.

Hotels.

Hopkinsville hotels and boarding houses are all that can be desired in the way of comfortable ville's climate is all that can be said in a complimentary manner about any climate; her markets are as cheap as any in the world; her municipal government, with its police and fire protection, its splendid water and sewer systems, its public lights and its equitable tax is orderly and progressive. Her tributary race horse and blooded cattle farms are famous; she has excellent railroad facilities, solid banking institution; her schools and colleges educate boys and girls from all parts of the South; she has every public convenience and adornment that a populous, thrifty city should have. She is prominent in Kentucky—the "Blue Grass" State—the land of fertile fields, vast forests and perienced men and the engine house is neat and well kept, and all is under systematic direction. Salaried men are on constant duty, and ready for any emergency.

Banking.

Hopkinsville is known for the solidity of its banks. Many rich men make it their home, and its reputation will never fade so long as the present shrewd, energetic business men have the accommodations. The rates vary from $1 to $4 per day.

State Institution.

The Western Kentucky Asylum for the Insane is located about two miles east of here and contains about 800 patients. The buildings are large, covering a large area of ground. It has been recently enlarged until there is ample room. All the buildings are well equipped and handsomely furnished, and are kept neat and clean. The grounds are large and magnificent.

Conclusion.

Glancing a moment over the commerce of the city in a general introductory way, the pertinent fact is unavoidable that whatever Hopkinsville pretends to have she has in a substantial manner, and it might be added that if Hopkinsville has a serious fault, it is her conservatism. But in the words of the poet, "Even her failings lean to virtue's side;" for it is to this above fault she owes her solidity. Her important manufacturing concerns and her retail establishments are not to be compared in

Brief History of Hopkinsville and Christian County.

PICTORIAL EDITION EDITOR AND EDITRESS.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Bickers.

ANY EDITOR WANTING AN EDITION OF THIS KIND, IT WILL NOT COST HIM A CENT.

Address me at Forest Hill, Tenn., for Terms and Conditions. I make a Specialty of making these Pictorial Issues for Daily and Weekly newspapers. I Edited and designed this edition, exclusively own my instruments and do my own photographing.

MR. R. E. HUGHES, Secretary Kentucky Exhibit Association World's Fair, St. Louis, 1904, who called on me recently, says without fail send him a copy of each town I have gotten issues of this kind out for, to be exhibited in the Kentucky building. He says it is the finest enterprise in the State to day. I will respond to his request.

The advantages of these editions to newspapers are: They secure them more advertising, get them more subscribers and get their editors before the world as enterprising, hustling newspaper men. These issues are printed on heavy enamel white paper, with from two to three hundred halftones of people and street scenes in the cities and towns where they are made. The covers are handsomely lithographed in bright colors and printed by the largest publishers in the United States. These editions contain all the prominent men and women in your community, also all noted events. Issues of this kind are the thing to boom a newspaper and communities.

Any newspaper editor wanting an edition of this kind should address Mr. Bickers, Forest Hill, Tenn., for terms and conditions.

The above picture is a correct likeness of William H. Bickers, special editor of the local newspapers. For the past twelve years he has devoted his entire time to this class of work. He is a young man, only thirty-one years of age, born and reared in Shelby county, in his father's country home, near Memphis, Tenn., where his father and mother and four brothers yet reside. In his past life he has been connected with some of the largest firms in the world. For three years he was book keeper for the Standard Oil Co., office Memphis, Tenn., resigning that position in 1889 to accept a position with the Home Aid Benevolent Association, of Mobile, Ala., as secretary and traveling auditor. During the late war he went to the West India Islands as official photographer for one of the largest newspapers in the United States. The New York World, which gives him advantages over the majority of newspaper men with that kind of newspaper experience. Mr. Bickers has served in every capacity about a newspaper, from devil up to editorial chair, learning the trade as a practical man when a mere boy of twelve years of age on the old Tennessee Baptist, Memphis, Tenn., edited and owned by Rev. J. R. Graves. He is a moral business young man, and would be a credit to any newspaper wanting an edition of this kind; they will do well to secure Mr. Bickers, because he is equipped for this class of work, being an editor and photographer together. His work is the very finest, which you will see by these editions. Mr. Bickers holds clippings from other newspapers to verify this statement.

Mrs. Genoa Bickers, who ably assists her husband in this class of newspaper work, was born and raised in Monroe county, near Gamaliel, Ky., her father being Hon. R. F. Comer, who was sheriff of Monroe county; also a member of the Kentucky General Assembly when the Constitution of the State was revised. Mrs. Bickers has traveled a great deal in the South and West, having visited the largest and most noted cities in California and the metropolis of the South, New Orleans, renders herself very beneficial to Mr. Bickers in this class of work.

It would be impossible in a pen sketch to do justice to the merits and advantages of this city.

Hopkinsville is the county seat of Christian county, which is the largest tobacco growing county in the world, the largest wheat and corn growing county in the State; the fifth county in population in the State, and the third in commercial importance.

Hopkinsville is situated on and between the two forks of Little river, which unite and form Little river just below the city. It is the terminus of the Tennessee Central Railroad. The terminus of the Ohio Valley division of the Illinois Central Railroad, and is on the main line of the St. Louis division of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad. Its position is unique, in that it has three grand independent lines of railway, that from the peculiar nature of circumstances cannot be united or merged. It has over 100 trains daily, bearing its product in quick time to all the principal parts of the World, and reaching by its connections the remotest quarter of the Globe.

It is surrounded by one of the most fertile agricultural sections of the country and it produces in its vicinity all the fruits, vegetables, farm products, wood and mineral indigenous to the United States. Water is purer, coal cheaper and labor better than any other point in this region. Its religious and educational facilities are the pride of its citizens and the envy of its neighbors. Its climate is unsurpassed and its health record the equal of any city under the shining sun. Its citizens are live, active men, with brains and money, and will soon make the city one of the foremost of the land. With three flouring mills, producing more than 2,000 barrels of flour per day, with its tobacco men, handling 15,000 hogsheads of tobacco per year; with its immense planing mills, preparing lumber for its contractors, who cannot build fast enough to supply its people with homes and factories with its colleges and schools, preparing hundreds of men and women for the battle of life; with its eminent ministry, containing some of the wisest theologians of the State; with its bar of brilliant attorneys, orators and counselors, containing some of the most enlightened and largest brained lawyers of the commonwealth; with its physicians and surgeons, skilled in medical science and literature; with its merchants and manufacturers, dealing with every point of the

The average temperature of the year is 58 degrees—the same as that of the northern part of Spain, the southern part of France, northern Italy, Greece and the islands of Japan. But the range of the thermometer is much greater, here, enabling the husbandman to lay in a supply of ice in winter and to grow Indian corn and melons to perfection in summer.

Historical.

On the 21st day of November, 1797, by a decree of court, the location of the seat of justice of Christian county was fully established and five acres of land was donated by B. Wood, and was officially accepted by the body. The embryo city was christened Elizabeth, but just how or why it was so called the chronicler of that early day fails to enlighten us. By that name it was known until 1803, when a change became necessary, as Hardin county was older and its county seat of justice was named Elizabeth.

road passes, to the admiring gaze of countless thousands of citizens and strangers seeking new fields for development. Hopkinsville will be your objective point and when the Tennessee Central conductor calls, "All off for Hopkinsville!" you will make no mistake to get off. For you may rest assured that no stranger will go unwelcomed, no hungry man will go unfed, nor will the naked go unclad within our gates.

As a people the citizens of Hopkinsville, persevering, progressive and enterprising, vouchsafing proper consideration and attention to manufactures and business men of every type who may be seeking a location for the establishment of their several branches of industry, yet positively requiring unalloyed integrity as the passport. And to all responsible persons a cordial invitation is extended to join us; and the following brief summary will demonstrate why we feel justified in a tempered pride over the inducements offered.

Hopkinsville, the city whose merits we accord, has never had a "boom." Its growth has been steady and natural. If the spiders of conservatism are allowed to spin the webs of caution in the window of opportunity, the people of a city may become as oblivious to that which betokens a splendid future as the bats are to the oscillations of Jupiter.

Climate and Soil.

The climate and soil of Kentucky, and particularly of Hopkinsville and its surrounding country, is delightful. The long, bracing; and the lassitude so common to the low lands during that season is unfelt upon the elevated portions of Kentucky. Chills and fevers are almost strangers in this section; consumption is very rare, and ma-town. So Christian county was obliged to give way and the name Hopkinsville was adopted in honor of Gen. Sam. Hopkins, a gallant officer of the Revolution.

To commence at the beginning of Hopkinsville and give a true detail of the rise and progress of business and industry—when it was commenced and by whom is a task beyond the power of man to perform. Suffice it to say, that to the sound and unerring judgment and foresight of her sturdy pioneers, a solid and substantial foundation was laid, on which is now built one of the handsomest, most wide-awake and thoroughly progressive little cities in the State of Kentucky.

Referring to the early settlement of Hopkinsville by way of comparison, we will just mention here that in 1804 the town was composed of a blacksmith-shop, a tavern, a court-house, one store and a few log cabins. In those early days the merchants bought their goods in the East about twice a year. Sometimes the goods were hauled in a wagon all the way from Philadelphia, but most generally shipped from Pittsburg in flat boats down the Ohio to the mouth of the Cumberland, thence up the river to Canton or Clarksville.

Thoroughly Lighted.

This city is lighted by electricity and can claim one of the best equipped electric plants in Southern Kentucky. It is under the management of up-to-date business men, who are fully alive to the demand of an enlightened public.

Water Supply.

Hopkinsville is blessed with a fine system of water works. The supply is obtained from Little River about one mile above the city, where the pump house is located. The water is pumped perienced men and the engine house is neat and well kept, and all is under systematic direction. Salaried men are on constant duty, and ready for any emergency.

Banking.

Hopkinsville is known for the solidity of its banks. Many rich men make it their home, and its reputation will never fade so long as the present shrewd, energetic business men have the accommodations. The rates vary from $1 to $4 per day.

State Institution.

The Western Kentucky Asylum for the Insane is located about two miles east of here and contains about 800 patients. The buildings are large, covering a large area of ground. It has been recently enlarged until there is ample room. All the buildings are well equipped and handsomely furnished, and are kept neat and clean. The grounds are large and magnificent.

Conclusion.

Glancing a moment over the commerce of the city in a general introductory way, the pertinent fact is unavoidable that whatever Hopkinsville pretends to have she has in a substantial manner, and it might be added that if Hopkinsville has a serious fault, it is her conservatism. But in the words of the poet, "Even her failings lean to virtue's side;" for it is to this above fault she owes her solidity. Her important manufacturing concerns and her retail establishments are not to be compared in bountiful mines, and of men and women whose history proves them sturdy and capable of great things. The future—what is it? No city in the country has reason to expect more proportionately.

More people are wanted. There is support here for a quadrupled population of enterprising men in all walks of life.

Some of Hopkinsville's enterprises are here with noticed:

Over 10,000 inhabitants.

Three railroads—L. & N., L. C. and T. C.

Two telegraph companies—Western Union and Postal.

Headquarters for Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Two splendidly equipped colleges for white people—one male

THE PLAN OF YOUR PROPOSED HOUSE

What a Set of Working Plans Consists of.

Basement or Foundation, roof plan, floor plans, three elevations showing front and two sides, all drawn to a  $\frac{1}{4}$  inch scale, with every dimension carefully figured and marked; a complete set of scaled and full size details of everything inside and out requiring a detail. One set of especially prepared specifications.

My Working Drawings.

Knowing as I do that my Working Drawings, when they leave my office, go out of reach of my personal supervision, I have taken SPECIAL PAINS TO MAKE EVERYTHING PLAIN AND EASILY UNDERSTOOD.

JAS. L. LONG, Architect.

I should like very much to help you in developing your plans or assist you in any way I can to solve the problem, which, by the way, is a right serious one when we think about it being for a house to live in for a lifetime, perhaps. Send me a rough sketch (no matter how rudely drawn) giving size of rooms inside, also state in your letter the amount you wish to expend for building and whether it will be of stone, brick or frame. Give me some idea of the house wanted and the amount you want to pay for it and I will work you up floor plans and front elevation to a  $\frac{1}{4}$  inch scale, making such changes as I think best and submit same to you FREE OF COST and at the same time quote you very low price for complete working plans, specifications, etc.

There are many people who spend years in planning a house and in many cases many more years are spent in regretting that it is not right. I think I can save you many of these regrets. Let me try at any rate.

IS JUST WHAT YOU WANT IF YOU ARE GOING TO BUILD.

Before you get plans elsewhere it will pay you to see or write me and get my prices. Start right by getting plans and specifications and you will end right.

DR. JAS. E. OLDHAM

AND WIFE,

DR. LULA E. OLDHAM,

GRADUATES of the American School of Osteopathy, Kirksville, Missouri, under DR. A. T. STILL, founder of the Science.

Drs. Oldham are the only persons in Hopkinsville who have taken the two years course (required by all reputable schools of Osteopathy) consisting of four terms of five months each, actual class attendance.

COURSE OF STUDY.

FIRST YEAR.

FIRST TERM—Descriptive Anatomy, General Chemistry, Histology including Lectures and Laboratory work.

SECOND TERM—Descriptive Anatomy, Physiology, Principles of Osteopathy, Physiological Chemistry, Urinalysis and Toxicology, Hygiene.

SECOND YEAR.

THIRD TERM—Regional Anatomy with demonstrations on the cadaver, Physiology, Dissection, Pathology, Symptomatology, Theory and Practice of Osteopathy, Clinical Demonstrations and Practice, Instruction in Osteopathic Manipulations.

FOURTH TERM—Neurology, Surgery, Applied Anatomy, Pathology and Bacteriology in Laboratory, Gynecology, Obstetrics, Clinical Demonstrations, Clinical Practice, Medical Jurisprudence, Physical Diagnosis.

No other course short of the above is recognized by any reputable Osteopathic or Osteopathic school. Osteopathy is a science pure and simple, that requires no faith, no drugs, no rubbing, nor surgical operations, claims nothing supernatural and depends on the principles of anatomy and physiology for its results. It regards man as a machine subject of adjustment. To give a full explanation of the Science would require more space in this issue than can be devoted to any one subject, but quite simple and convincing it is to those who give it a fair trial.

WHAT OSTEOPATHY IS NOT.

It is not mysticism; it is mechanism. It is not prayer; it is physics. It is not faith; it is work. It is not magnetic; it is vivific. It is not massage nor mere manipulation; it is the mastery of the matter and motions of the body by trained hands and brains. It is not mental; it is mechanical. It is not pharmacological; it is physiological; it is not artificial; it is natural. It is not dead; it is real. It is not hypnotic; it is dynamic. It is not destructive; it is constructive. It is not trance; it is truth. It is not spiritualism; it is animism. It is not hallucination; it is health.

Dr. and Mrs. Oldham entered the American School of Osteopathy at Kirksville, Mo., in September, 1897, and graduated in June, class of 1899. Upon receiving their diplomas, they came immediately to Hopkinsville. Though introducing a new science in a new field, their patronage has steadily increased. Their patrons are numbered among the best people of Hopkinsville and surrounding country, and by all of whom they have served are held in the highest esteem as honorable and upright citizens, proficient in their well chosen profession. They make no charges for consultation. Phone 264.
